A Message from Patti Rossini

School may be out for the summer, but there are still lots of opportunities for young children to play and learn! Here are some ideas for families with young children (adapted from the National Association for the Education of Young Children):

Take your child to a live performance- Family friendly events are a great way to teach your child about the performing arts. We have so many great resources in the Davidson and greater Charlotte area. Check out the Children's Theater of Charlotte or an outdoor summer concert.

Read books about summer time fun-These stories can focus on playing outdoors, visiting relatives, and cooling off in the water. You can find many great books and story times for little ones at the local libraries and book stores.

Take a nature walk- Use time outdoors with young children to help them learn about the natural world. Explore your neighborhood, observe the weather, examine plants, flowers, and more! There are so many great parks and greenway trails in this area, you could probably walk some place new every day. Meet a few friends and pick a new park or playground to visit.

Find low-cost or no-cost local attractions to visit with young children (zoos, botanical gardens, and farms-to name a few) to assist in their summer learning adventures. When my children were small we loved to visit Discovery Place, the Nature Museum and the Lazy 5 Ranch. Now there are so many activities available on Lake Norman. Take advantage of the sun and water and create memories with your child while they have fun and learn a little too.

In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer, we pray for Trinity Church in Mount Airy, St. Cyprian's & St. Stephen's in Oxford, NC.

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for The Right Revd. Greg Anderson of Queensland, Australia.

If you are looking for an opportunity for your child to play with friends in a preschool environment, we still have a few summer camp openings for children ages 3-5 and a few openings in our preschool program for the 17/18 school year. Please call the preschool office or visit our website at www.saintalbanspreschool.org for more information.

If so, the CCC craft group encourages you to consider sharing your talents and making a few extra items to donate to the Fall Craft Fair in November 2017. We hope to have a varied selection of fall and Christmas decorations, small home décor, fashion accessories, jewelry, etc. Please refer to the poster on the church bulletin board for additional information. Call or text

Contact Carol Sandke at casandke@davidson.edu.

Father David Love Offering

During Father David's last month at Saint Alban's, we will be collecting a Love Offering to thank him for his years of commitment and service to Saint Alban's and to show him how much we love him as he begins the next phase of his life as a retired priest and even more avid golfer! Checks written directly to Father David Buck will be considered gifts and will not go through the Saint Alban's accounting system. Contributions made to Saint Alban's with "Father David Love Offering" in the memo line are tax deductible for the contributor and will be taxable to Father David. Please join us in thanking him! Contributions can be delivered to the church office or placed in the weekly collection plate. The Love Offering will be presented to Father David during his last weekend at Saint Alban's.
