A message from

Rev. Kevin

When I arrived here last August, I pretty much hit the ground running, both at Saint Alban's and at the college. Davidson students arrived less than two weeks after I started, and it felt as if I spent much of the year playing catch-up. Now that I have gotten the first academic year under my belt, I'm relishing the opportunity to take a breath and actually do some planning for Canterbury in advance of next school year. As such, I would like to share with you some of my thoughts for Canterbury going forward.

First, it is very important to me that we continue to strengthen the bonds that already exist between Saint Alban's and Canterbury. I am incredibly grateful for all those who have so generously offered their time and talent in providing weekly home-cooked meals for the students on Sunday evenings. I, Sandra Johnson, and the students deeply appreciate this, and I definitely want us to continue this ministry to the students. This is a wonderful way for members of Saint Alban's to get to spend some time with these remarkable young people. If you've not participated in this ministry yet, I would encourage you to think about doing so. There will sign-up opportunities later in the summer.

That said, I will be looking for other ways to increase interactions between the students and Saint Alban's, and I welcome any ideas you may have in this regard. Specifically, I would like to find ways to connect the students with like to find ways to connect the students with some of the incredible outreach ministries we have at Saint Alban's. Knowing how busy their schedules are, I'm keeping my expectations realistic about this, but I would love to see them participating in some of what we do here. I'm also hoping to get them occasionally involved in helping with worship leadership on Sundays, as their schedules allow.

Finally, once the new school year starts back up in the fall, I will be offering regular invitations to all of you to join us, as your schedules allow, for our worship offerings on campus (Daily Morning Prayer at 9am, Monday through Thursday; and Holy Eucharist at 4:30 on Sundays). Even if it's just once or twice during the year, you will always be welcome!

Music Notes

On Sunday (6/23/19) we will begin using new service music for the summer. Before playing the Prelude, John will be going through these parts of the service so we can get familiar with them before the service begins. The Glory to God, Holy, Holy, Holy Lord and the Fraction Anthem will be from Wonder, Love and Praise which is a supplement to The Hymnal 1982. Please plan on arriving in time so we all can join together in practicing these new songs.
