St. Alban's
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

welcomes you

The Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Eucharist: Rite II
November 8, 2026
10:30 a.m.

Welcome to St. Alban's Episcopal Church!

If you are new today, we are very glad you are here. There is a Welcome Desk to the right of the front doors, under the blue and gold banner. Look for a friendly Greeter to answer any questions or point you in the right direction. Please complete a newcomer form at the Welcome Desk so that we can be in touch and send you our newsletter. We would love to get to know you and become your spiritual home.

Our Building

Our worship area/sanctuary is called the nave, which comes from a Latin word for "ship" because the ceiling of a church resembles the upside-down hull of a boat, and the people within are on a journey together with Christ.

The upstairs lobby area is called the narthex. Adjacent is the Reflection Room, which is used for meetings and classes. The hallway off the narthex leads to the office and the stairs.

Upstairs restrooms are located just off the narthex. A gender neutral/family restroom with a changing table is available in the Reflection Room.

You can access the lower floor by staircase or elevator. Once downstairs, turn left to find the nursery, Sunday School classrooms for children, and additional restrooms. Turn right to find the choir room, the youth room, and the parlor, which leads to the Parish Hall and another gender neutral/family restroom.

Worship

Our bulletin will guide you through the service. At times, the congregation will be invited to stand or kneel, but feel free to participate in whatever way is comfortable for you. Responses spoken by the congregation are included in the bulletin, and the full text of any parts not printed in the bulletin can be found in The Book of Common Prayer (the book with the cross on the cover) or the hymnal—see your bulletin for the page numbers. Hymnals and prayer books can be found beneath the chairs.

If you are new to Episcopal worship, feel free to simply listen and let the rhythms and cadences of the service wash over you. With time, you will find that many of the words in the service become imprinted on your heart.

Nametags

God calls us each by name, and we want to be able to call one another by name too. We encourage everyone to wear a nametag each time you come to church. If you need a nametag, a Greeter can help you in the narthex. When not in use, we have magnetic storage boards for nametags both upstairs in the narthex and downstairs in the parlor—feel free to pick the station closest to the entrance you tend to use most often.

Children

Children of all ages are always welcome in worship. Worship bags are available just outside the nave doors. The sounds of children in church are the sounds of a living, thriving church! Younger children are welcome to use our "prayground" with parental supervision. The prayground is located on the right side of the nave, up front. Sitting close to the front can help little ones be more engaged in the service. Sometimes kids (and adults!) need a little break, so feel free to visit the narthex or Reflection Room for more wiggle space if that would be helpful.

If desired, our nursery (for ages 5 and under) is open from 9:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. It is located downstairs in the Sunday School area. The nursery is staffed by a mix of volunteers and paid attendants, often Davidson College students. All nursery attendants have had background checks and follow safe church procedures.

Children of all ages are invited to Children's Chapel. Following the Gospel, children will process out for age-appropriate music, prayers, and a brief lesson during the Sermon. They will return during the Passing of the Peace so families can be together for Communion.

Refreshments & Fellowship

Following the service, all are invited to the Parish Hall for coffee, snacks, and friendly conversation. Whether you're a newcomer or a longtime member, you are encouraged to find someone you haven't met before and say hello!

Thank you for worshiping with us today. In order to allow for private prayer, we ask that you refrain from loud conversation upon entering the nave.

_The congregation is invited to stand as able when indicated by an asterisk._

Look for the + symbol throughout this bulletin to learn more about worship in the Episcopal tradition. Another word for worship is liturgy, which means "the work of the people". Worship is not a performance we watch – we all have a part in it.

Our sacred time of worship includes a variety of activities: singing, listening, praying, and feasting. As you arrive, let the prelude music calm you and prepare your heart for worship. Use this time to talk to God. Then, during the service, let God talk to you. After the service, talk to one another.

The Word of God

The Prelude: Forlana Gerald Finzi

+ We stand if we are able as the first hymn begins. This is a way of saying, "Here we are, God!" As the worship leaders approach the altar, they are led by a cross, the most powerful symbol of our Christian faith. Hymns and music are an important part of our worship. Sing out with whatever voice God has given you!

The Processional Hymn: 436, Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates TRURO

+ The first half of the service is known as the Liturgy of the Word. The primary purpose of worship is to praise God. The opening acclamation makes this clear. The word "Amen" is said for the first of many times. It is a way of saying, "Yes, may it be so" after praying.

The Opening Acclamation Book of Common Prayer (BCP) p. 355

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

+ A Collect is a special prayer that gathers or "collects" several thoughts together. A Collect usually has three parts: a call to God, a request, and a conclusion. In the Collect for Purity, we remember that God is very close to us, and we ask for help in opening our hearts to God throughout our worship today so that we can reflect God's love to the world.

The Collect for Purity BCP p. 355

+ The Trisagion is an ancient hymn from the eastern church. The term comes from the Greek language and means "three times holy." As we begin our worship, we sing this three times to acknowledge the holiness of our God.

The Trisagion: S 102 (sung 3 times) Archangelsky

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

+ Next, we listen to readings from the Bible—usually one from the Hebrew Scriptures (also known as the Old Testament), a Psalm, one from the New Testament, and one from the Gospels.

The Bible readings for the day are set by a three-year calendar called a Lectionary, which is also used by many other Christian denominations. Together, the lessons tell the story of God's love through the voices of real people who lived long ago.

The First Lesson Wisdom 6:12–16

Wisdom is radiant and unfading, and she is easily discerned by those who love her, and is found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her. One who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty, for she will be found sitting at the gate. To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding, and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care, because she goes about seeking those worthy of her, and she graciously appears to them in their paths, and meets them in every thought.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

+ The Psalm is from a collection of 150 poetic prayers found in the Hebrew Scriptures. They were originally composed to be sung. Many psalms were written to give God praise, to ask for God's help, or to express joy or sadness.

Psalm 70 Chanted by the Children's Choir.

Be pleased, O God, to deliver me;
O Lord, make haste to help me.
Let those who seek my life be ashamed and altogether dismayed;
let those who take pleasure in my misfortune draw back and be disgraced.
Let those who say to me "Aha!" and gloat over me turn back, because they are ashamed.
Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say for ever, "Great is the Lord!"
But as for me, I am poor and needy;
come to me speedily, O God.
You are my helper and my deliverer;
O Lord, do not tarry.

The Second Lesson 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

As the Sequence Hymn begins, the children are invited to gather around the children's cross for the reading of the gospel.

The Sequence Hymn: 61, "Sleepers, wake" A voice astounds us WACHET AUF
Stanzas 1-2 are sung before the Gospel, stanza 3 is sung following the Gospel.

+ The Gospel is the Good News of God's love for God's people, so it is read from the middle of the congregation, usually by a Deacon. If we are able, we stand up and turn toward the Gospel book, to signify its importance. The four Gospel authors are Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John. Together, they tell the story of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Some people make the sign of the cross over their forehead, mouth, and chest right before the Gospel is read. This is a prayer we say with our hands, and it means, "May God be in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts as we hear the good news of Jesus."

The Gospel Matthew 25:1-13

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel reading, the children are invited to follow the cross to the narthex for Children's Chapel. They will return during the Exchange of the Peace.

+ The sermon is a reflection on the Good News we have heard in the lessons. The preacher helps us understand the Bible lessons, and why they matter for us. This is a time for listening. Children's Chapel offers an age-appropriate reflection on the same lessons.

The Sermon The Rev. Carmen Germino

+ When the sermon concludes, it is time to assert our faith. The Nicene Creed was written about three hundred years after Jesus died. It is one of our Church's ancient statements of faith. It contains the core beliefs and traditions of Christianity and is something we hold in common with other Christians beyond the Episcopal Church.

*The Nicene Creed BCP p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

+ In the Prayers of the People, we pray for others throughout the world and in our own community, especially those who are struggling. You are welcome to add your own prayer requests or thanksgivings to God, out loud or silently, at the indicated times.

*The Prayers of the People

The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

Deacon: Let us pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

Intercessor: Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church; That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you; That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons; That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world; That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake; That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble; That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed, eternal rest; Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy; May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others. Together we pray for… Are there others?

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

+ The Confession is a prayer to offer up to God the things weighing on our hearts and to express regret for the ways we have hurt others and ourselves. In the Absolution, the priest assures us of God's love and forgiveness. It is customary to kneel for the Confession and Absolution if you are able, but kneeling is not required.

The Confession & Absolution BCP p. 360

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. Silence is kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

+ In the Exchange of the Peace, we are reminded of the importance of being at peace with one another as we prepare for receiving communion. (See Matthew 5:23-24.) In ancient times, Christians would greet each other with "the kiss of peace". Today we hug, shake hands, or wave to others, offering kindness and welcome to everyone.

The Exchange of the Peace BCP p. 360

The people greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Greeting and Announcements

The Holy Communion

+ Now we come to the second half of our service, sometimes called the Liturgy of the Table, Holy Eucharist, or Holy Communion. We begin with the Offertory. A musical offering is shared as the table is set for communion. The bread and the wine are brought to the altar in offering. This is also a time of sharing our financial gifts to help the church do God's work. Sharing some of our money serves as a visible reminder that our whole lives are offered to God. We are thankful for our many blessings and offer a portion of them back to God in gratitude for all that we have. Even if you do online or automatic monthly giving, you can offer a prayer of gratitude as the offering plate passes by.

The Offertory Anthem: Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning
Children's Choir

Let us with gladness present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord. To utilize our text-to-give option, simply text "ALBANS" to 73256.

+ As the offerings of financial gifts are brought to the altar, we sing the Doxology. "Doxa" and "logos" are Greek words meaning "word of glory." Here, we praise God with our voices as the Celebrant offers a blessing of what we've shared from our means.

The Presentation of Gifts

The Presentation Hymn: 705, stanza 1 FOREST GREEN

As those of old their first fruits brought of vineyard, flock, and field to God the giver of all good, the source of bounteous yield;
so we today our first fruits bring, the wealth of this good land, of farm and market, shop and home, of mind and heart and hand.

+ The word "Eucharist" means "Thanksgiving" and in the prayer that follows, God is given thanks for creation and revelation to God's people. God is praised for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ.

The Great Thanksgiving, Prayer B BCP p. 367

+ In the Great Thanksgiving, the priest offers thanks to God on our behalf for the whole creation, for God's people who came before Jesus, and then for Jesus' life. "Sursum Corda" is a Latin phrase meaning "upward hearts." When we have raised our hearts to God, the priest will tell the story of the Last Supper and how Jesus asked his disciples to keep sharing this special meal. Each time we celebrate Holy Communion together, we are doing what Jesus asked us to do.

*The Sursum Corda

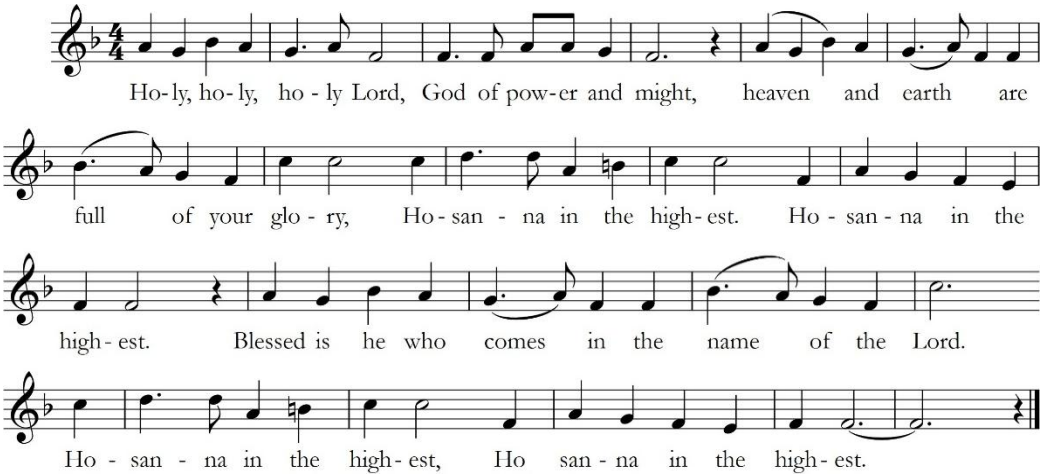

The Celebrant continues.

+ The Sanctus is a hymn that recalls the words of the prophet Isaiah, overwhelmed by the presence of God in the sanctuary. Bells are sometimes rung at key moments during the Eucharist prayer. Historically, the bells served to wake people up or refocus their attention during the service. Now, the bells are rung to emphasize the sacredness of the liturgy.

*The Sanctus: S 125

Richard Proulx

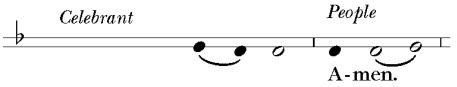

The Celebrant continues. The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

✝ The words that Jesus said over the bread and wine are called the Words of Institution. These words have been repeated by people in many languages all over the world for generations.

Jesus did four important things when he shared a meal with others. He took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it. This is what we do too. As we remember the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with his disciples, we ourselves join the story and make it our own. Through our prayers and the mystery of the Holy Spirit, the bread and wine become the real presence of Jesus.

Celebrant: Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
People: we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues.

✝ In the Lord's Prayer we ask for daily bread, meaning the things we need to get through each day. Jesus himself taught this prayer to his disciples in the Gospels of Matthew (6:9–13) and Luke (11:2–4). Christians of all kinds pray these words all throughout the world.

The Lord's Prayer

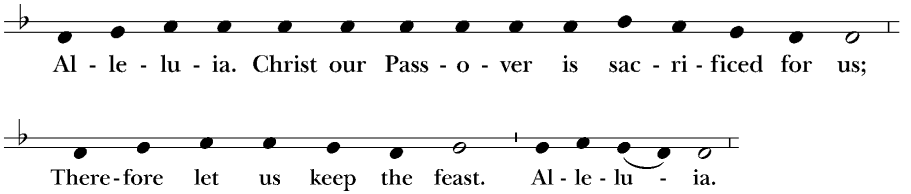

BCP p. 364

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

✝ The Fraction is also called the Breaking of the Bread. It recalls Jesus breaking bread at the Last Supper, and it also reminds us that his body was broken on the cross.

Following the Fraction, the clergy hold up the bread and wine and invite the congregation to receive "the gifts of God, for the people of God." As we receive these gifts, we receive Jesus and are nourished and strengthened by him.

The Fraction Anthem: S 152 Ambrosian chant; adapt. Mason Martens

The Ministration of Communion BCP p. 365

All are welcome to gather at the Lord's table. At the appropriate time, you may come forward to the altar rail, filling in from right to left. Kneeling is optional. Gluten-free wafers are available; please make your need known to the clergy by holding your hands out with one palm facing down. Wine is available either by sipping from the common cup (silver chalice) or by intinction (dipping the wafer of bread into the pottery chalice.) If you choose the common cup, it will be stationed in front of the altar rail in the center—please make your way there after consuming the wafer. If you choose to intinct, please remain where you are and hold your wafer visible to indicate that is your preference. Please take utmost care to keep your fingers from touching the wine as you dip. You may choose to receive only the bread or the wine, as either one alone is a full Communion. Please tell an usher if you need communion brought to you. In the Episcopal Church, it is customary that those receiving communion have been baptized in any Christian tradition, and no one who comes to the altar in faith is turned away. If you would like to learn more about Baptism at St. Alban's, please be in touch with the clergy. If you are not receiving Communion, we hope you will come forward and cross your arms over your chest, so that we might share a brief word of blessing with you.

The Communion Anthem: Hear My Words Stephen Paulus

Hear my words, O gracious Lord, to my thoughts attentive be;
hear my cry, my King, my God, I will make my prayer to Thee.
With the morning light O Lord, Thou shalt hear my voice arise;
and expectant I will bring, prayer as morning sacrifice.
Thou are Holy O my God, Thou delightest not in sin;
evil shall not dwell with Thee, nor the proud Thy favor win.
O gracious Lord,

The Communion Hymn: 68, Rejoice, rejoice, believers LLANGLOFFAN

+ After communion, the congregation says a prayer together. This is a prayer of gratitude and hope for God's continued work in our lives. Then, a Blessing is given by the priest as a pronouncement of God's love and favor upon the people.

*The Post Communion Prayer BCP p. 365

The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Recessional Hymn: 527, Singing songs of expectation TON-Y-BOTEL

+ The final act of our common worship is the Dismissal, traditionally given by the Deacon. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service. The word "Mass" comes from the Latin words "missa est"- "you are sent". Christ's final action on earth was to send his followers into the world to be witnesses to his love. Now that we have gathered to worship, we scatter to serve and love like Jesus.

The Dismissal BCP p. 366

People: Thanks be to God.
