St. Alban's
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

welcomes you

The Twenty-Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Eucharist: Rite II
November 15, 2026
10:30 a.m.

Welcome to St. Alban's Episcopal Church!

If you are new today, we are very glad you are here. There is a Welcome Desk to the right of the front doors, under the blue and gold banner. Look for a friendly Greeter to answer any questions or point you in the right direction. Please complete a newcomer form at the Welcome Desk so that we can be in touch and send you our newsletter. We would love to get to know you and become your spiritual home.

Our Building

Our worship area/sanctuary is called the nave, which comes from a Latin word for "ship" because the ceiling of a church resembles the upside-down hull of a boat, and the people within are on a journey together with Christ.

The upstairs lobby area is called the narthex. Adjacent is the Reflection Room, which is used for meetings and classes. The hallway off the narthex leads to the office and the stairs.

Upstairs restrooms are located just off the narthex. A gender neutral/family restroom with a changing table is available in the Reflection Room.

You can access the lower floor by staircase or elevator. Once downstairs, turn left to find the nursery, Sunday School classrooms for children, and additional restrooms. Turn right to find the choir room, the youth room, and the parlor, which leads to the Parish Hall and another gender neutral/family restroom.

Worship

Our bulletin will guide you through the service. At times, the congregation will be invited to stand or kneel, but feel free to participate in whatever way is comfortable for you. Responses spoken by the congregation are included in the bulletin, and the full text of any parts not printed in the bulletin can be found in The Book of Common Prayer (the book with the cross on the cover) or the hymnal—see your bulletin for the page numbers. Hymnals and prayer books can be found beneath the chairs.

If you are new to Episcopal worship, feel free to simply listen and let the rhythms and cadences of the service wash over you. With time, you will find that many of the words in the service become imprinted on your heart.

Nametags

God calls us each by name, and we want to be able to call one another by name too. We encourage everyone to wear a nametag each time you come to church. If you need a nametag, a Greeter can help you in the narthex. When not in use, we have magnetic storage boards for nametags both upstairs in the narthex and downstairs in the parlor—feel free to pick the station closest to the entrance you tend to use most often.

Children

Children of all ages are always welcome in worship. Worship bags are available just outside the nave doors. The sounds of children in church are the sounds of a living, thriving church! Younger children are welcome to use our "prayground" with parental supervision. The prayground is located on the right side of the nave, up front. Sitting close to the front can help little ones be more engaged in the service. Sometimes kids (and adults!) need a little break, so feel free to visit the narthex or Reflection Room for more wiggle space if that would be helpful.

If desired, our nursery (for ages 5 and under) is open from 9:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. It is located downstairs in the Sunday School area. The nursery is staffed by a mix of volunteers and paid attendants, often Davidson College students. All nursery attendants have had background checks and follow safe church procedures.

Children of all ages are invited to Children's Chapel. Following the Gospel, children will process out for age-appropriate music, prayers, and a brief lesson during the Sermon. They will return during the Passing of the Peace so families can be together for Communion.

Refreshments & Fellowship

Following the service, all are invited to the Parish Hall for coffee, snacks, and friendly conversation. Whether you're a newcomer or a longtime member, you are encouraged to find someone you haven't met before and say hello!

Thank you for worshiping with us today. In order to allow for private prayer, we ask that you refrain from loud conversation upon entering the nave.

_The congregation is invited to stand as able when indicated by an asterisk._

Look for the + symbol throughout this bulletin to learn more about worship in the Episcopal tradition. Another word for worship is liturgy, which means "the work of the people". Worship is not a performance we watch – we all have a part in it.

Our sacred time of worship includes a variety of activities: singing, listening, praying, and feasting. As you arrive, let the prelude music calm you and prepare your heart for worship. Use this time to talk to God. Then, during the service, let God talk to you. After the service, talk to one another.

The Word of God

The Prelude: Canon of Grace Linda R. Lamb
St. Alban's Bell Choir

+ We stand if we are able as the first hymn begins. This is a way of saying, "Here we are, God!" As the worship leaders approach the altar, they are led by a cross, the most powerful symbol of our Christian faith. Hymns and music are an important part of our worship. Sing out with whatever voice God has given you!

The Processional Hymn: 616, Hail to the Lord's anointed
ES FLOG EIN KLEINS WALDVOGELEIN

+ The first half of the service is known as the Liturgy of the Word. The primary purpose of worship is to praise God. The opening acclamation makes this clear. The word "Amen" is said for the first of many times. It is a way of saying, "Yes, may it be so" after praying.

The Opening Acclamation Book of Common Prayer (BCP) p. 355

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

+ A Collect is a special prayer that gathers or "collects" several thoughts together. A Collect usually has three parts: a call to God, a request, and a conclusion. In the Collect for Purity, we remember that God is very close to us, and we ask for help in opening our hearts to God throughout our worship today so that we can reflect God's love to the world.

The Collect for Purity BCP p. 355

+ The Trisagion is an ancient hymn from the eastern church. The term comes from the Greek language and means "three times holy." As we begin our worship, we sing this three times to acknowledge the holiness of our God.

The Trisagion: S 102 (sung 3 times) Archangelsky

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

+ Next, we listen to readings from the Bible—usually one from the Hebrew Scriptures (also known as the Old Testament), a Psalm, one from the New Testament, and one from the Gospels.

The Bible readings for the day are set by a three-year calendar called a Lectionary, which is also used by many other Christian denominations. Together, the lessons tell the story of God's love through the voices of real people who lived long ago.

The First Lesson Zephaniah 1:7,12-18

Be silent before the Lord God! For the day of the Lord is at hand; the Lord has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests. At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, "The Lord will not do good, nor will he do harm." Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them. The great day of the Lord is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the Lord is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements. I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the Lord, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

+ The Psalm is from a collection of 150 poetic prayers found in the Hebrew Scriptures. They were originally composed to be sung. Many psalms were written to give God praise, to ask for God's help, or to express joy or sadness.

Psalm 90 The Choir will chant the Psalm and the People will join during the Refrain.

Refrain

Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born,
from age to age you are God.

You turn us back to the dust and say,
"Go back, O child of earth."

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night. Refrain

You sweep them away like a dream;
we fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green and flourishes;
in the evening it is dried up and withered.

For we are consumed by your anger;
we are afraid because of your wrath.

Our iniquities you have set before you,
and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom. Refrain

The Second Lesson 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

As the Sequence Hymn begins, the children are invited to gather around the children's cross for the reading of the gospel.

The Sequence Hymn: 9, Not here for high and holy things MORNING SONG Stanzas 1-3 are sung before the Gospel, stanzas 4-6 are sung following the Gospel.

+ The Gospel is the Good News of God's love for God's people, so it is read from the middle of the congregation, usually by a Deacon. If we are able, we stand up and turn toward the Gospel book, to signify its importance. The four Gospel authors are Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John. Together, they tell the story of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Some people make the sign of the cross over their forehead, mouth, and chest right before the Gospel is read. This is a prayer we say with our hands, and it means, "May God be in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts as we hear the good news of Jesus."

The Gospel Matthew 25:14-30

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the Gospel reading, the children are invited to follow the cross to the narthex for Children's Chapel. They will return during the Exchange of the Peace.

+ The sermon is a reflection on the Good News we have heard in the lessons. The preacher helps us understand the Bible lessons, and why they matter for us. This is a time for listening. Children's Chapel offers an age-appropriate reflection on the same lessons.

The Sermon The Rev. Kevin Lloyd

+ When the sermon concludes, it is time to assert our faith. The Nicene Creed was written about three hundred years after Jesus died. It is one of our Church's ancient statements of faith. It contains the core beliefs and traditions of Christianity and is something we hold in common with other Christians beyond the Episcopal Church.

The Nicene Creed BCP p. 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

+ In the Prayers of the People, we pray for others throughout the world and in our own community, especially those who are struggling. You are welcome to add your own prayer requests or thanksgivings to God, out loud or silently, at the indicated times.

*The Prayers of the People

The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

Deacon: Let us pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

Intercessor: Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. Together we pray … Are there others? Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom. Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

+ The Confession is a prayer to offer up to God the things weighing on our hearts and to express regret for the ways we have hurt others and ourselves. In the Absolution, the priest assures us of God's love and forgiveness. It is customary to kneel for the Confession and Absolution if you are able, but kneeling is not required.

The Confession & Absolution BCP p. 360

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor. Silence is kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

+ In the Exchange of the Peace, we are reminded of the importance of being at peace with one another as we prepare for receiving communion. (See Matthew 5:23-24.) In ancient times, Christians would greet each other with "the kiss of peace". Today we hug, shake hands, or wave to others, offering kindness and welcome to everyone.

The Exchange of the Peace BCP p. 360

The people greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Greeting and Announcements

The Holy Communion

+ Now we come to the second half of our service, sometimes called the Liturgy of the Table, Holy Eucharist, or Holy Communion. We begin with the Offertory. A musical offering is shared as the table is set for communion. The bread and the wine are brought to the altar in offering. This is also a time of sharing our financial gifts to help the church do God's work. Sharing some of our money serves as a visible reminder that our whole lives are offered to God. We are thankful for our many blessings and offer a portion of them back to God in gratitude for all that we have. Even if you do online or automatic monthly giving, you can offer a prayer of gratitude as the offering plate passes by.

The Offertory Anthem: Alleluia Round William Boyce

Let us with gladness present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord. To utilize our text-to-give option, simply text "ALBANS" to 73256.

+ As the offerings of financial gifts are brought to the altar, we sing the Doxology. "Doxa" and "logos" are Greek words meaning "word of glory." Here, we praise God with our voices as the Celebrant offers a blessing of what we've shared from our means.

The Presentation of Gifts

*The Presentation Hymn: 705, stanza 2 FOREST GREEN

A world in need now summons us to labor, love, and give to make our life an offering to God that all may live the Church of Christ is calling us to make the dream come true:
a world redeemed by Christlike love; all life in Christ made new.

+ The word "Eucharist" means "Thanksgiving" and in the prayer that follows, God is given thanks for creation and revelation to God's people. God is praised for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ.

*The Great Thanksgiving, Prayer A BCP p. 361

+ In the Great Thanksgiving, the priest offers thanks to God on our behalf for the whole creation, for God's people who came before Jesus, and then for Jesus' life. "Sursum Corda" is a Latin phrase meaning "upward hearts." When we have raised our hearts to God, the priest will tell the story of the Last Supper and how Jesus asked his disciples to keep sharing this special meal. Each time we celebrate Holy Communion together, we are doing what Jesus asked us to do.

*The Sursum Corda

The Celebrant continues.

+ The Sanctus is a hymn that recalls the words of the prophet Isaiah, overwhelmed by the presence of God in the sanctuary. Bells are sometimes rung at key moments during the Eucharist prayer. Historically, the bells served to wake people up or refocus their attention during the service. Now, the bells are rung to emphasize the sacredness of the liturgy.

The Sanctus: S 125 Richard Proulx

The Celebrant continues. The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

+ The words that Jesus said over the bread and wine are called the Words of Institution. These words have been repeated by people in many languages all over the world for generations.

Jesus did four important things when he shared a meal with others. He took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it. This is what we do too. As we remember the words and actions of Jesus' last meal with his disciples, we ourselves join the story and make it our own. Through our prayers and the mystery of the Holy Spirit, the bread and wine become the real presence of Jesus.

Celebrant: Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:
People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues.

+ In the Lord's Prayer we ask for daily bread, meaning the things we need to get through each day. Jesus himself taught this prayer to his disciples in the Gospels of Matthew (6:9–13) and Luke (11:2–4). Christians of all kinds pray these words all throughout the world.

The Lord's Prayer BCP p. 364

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

+ The Fraction is also called the Breaking of the Bread. It recalls Jesus breaking bread at the Last Supper, and it also reminds us that his body was broken on the cross.

Following the Fraction, the clergy hold up the bread and wine and invite the congregation to receive "the gifts of God, for the people of God." As we receive these gifts, we receive Jesus and are nourished and strengthened by him.

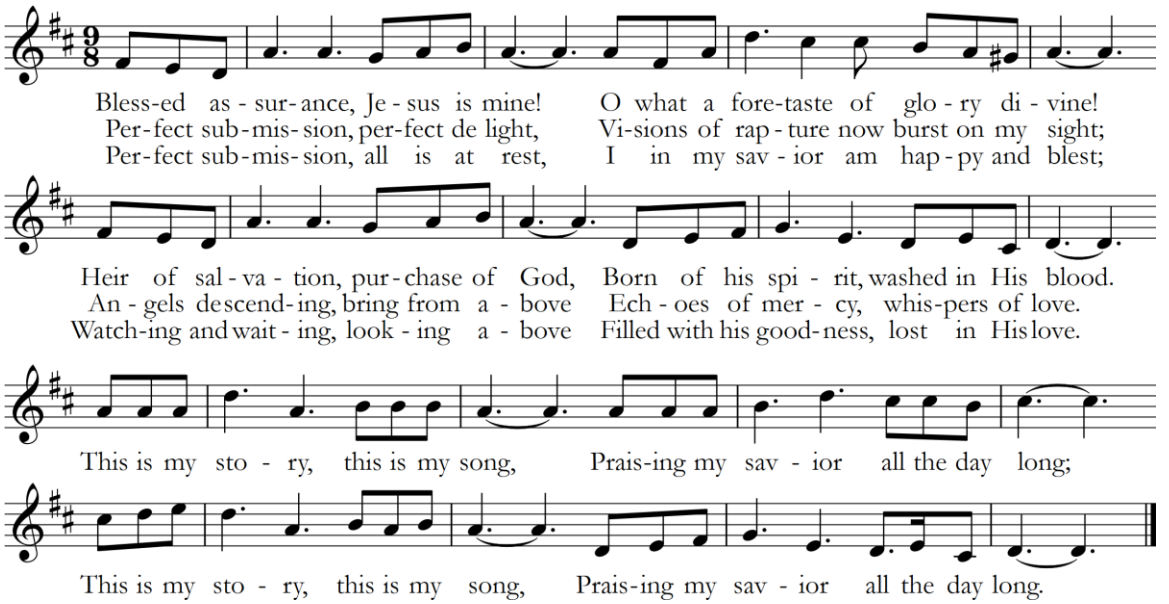

*The Fraction Anthem: S 152 Ambrosian chant; adapt. Mason Martens

The Ministration of Communion BCP p. 365

All are welcome to gather at the Lord's table. At the appropriate time, you may come forward to the altar rail, filling in from right to left. Kneeling is optional. Gluten-free wafers are available; please make your need known to the clergy by holding your hands out with one palm facing down. Wine is available either by sipping from the common cup (silver chalice) or by intinction (dipping the wafer of bread into the pottery chalice.) If you choose the common cup, it will be stationed in front of the altar rail in the center—please make your way there after consuming the wafer. If you choose to intinct, please remain where you are and hold your wafer visible to indicate that is your preference. Please take utmost care to keep your fingers from touching the wine as you dip. You may choose to receive only the bread or the wine, as either one alone is a full Communion. Please tell an usher if you need communion brought to you. In the Episcopal Church, it is customary that those receiving communion have been baptized in any Christian tradition, and no one who comes to the altar in faith is turned away. If you would like to learn more about Baptism at St. Alban's, please be in touch with the clergy. If you are not receiving Communion, we hope you will come forward and cross your arms over your chest, so that we might share a brief word of blessing with you.

*The Communion Hymn: Blessed Assurance

*The Communion Hymn: Light's abode, celestial Salem

REGENT'S SQUARE

+ After communion, the congregation says a prayer together. This is a prayer of gratitude and hope for God's continued work in our lives. Then, a Blessing is given by the priest as a pronouncement of God's love and favor upon the people.

The Post Communion Prayer BCP p. 365

The congregation is invited to stand or kneel as able.

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Recessional Hymn: 495, Hail, thou once despised Jesus IN BABILONE

+ The final act of our common worship is the Dismissal, traditionally given by the Deacon. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service. The word "Mass" comes from the Latin words "missa est"- "you are sent". Christ's final action on earth was to send his followers into the world to be witnesses to his love. Now that we have gathered to worship, we scatter to serve and love like Jesus.

The Dismissal BCP p. 366

People: Thanks be to God.
